

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR OF SOUTH DAKOTA

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the welfare of the State of South Dakota and the welfare of its Federal, State, County, and Municipal Peace Officers are inseparable; and

WHEREAS, many loyal and dedicated Federal, State, County and Municipal Peace Officers have been killed or disabled during the performance of their official duties; and;

WHEREAS, it is fitting that a day should be commemorated with exercises designed to perpetuate respect for law and order and the officers who serve daily for the protection and security of our lives and property;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 15, 1961, as

in South Dakota and urge the people of the State of South Dakota to observe this day in business and schools or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies expressive of our gratitude for peace, law and order and our desire for the continuation of the magnificent work of Peace Officers in their devotion to duty and their protection of the peoples' safety.

Done at Pierre this 8 day of May in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty One.
